Guided Reading - Questions about the text - Who Made This Teapot? - Session 4

Watch Thursday video 6 - all children

Mr B to the Guided Reading text one more time.
Make particular attention of punctuation.

Introduce first type of question - REMEMBER IT
What is this question asking you to use?

Model with this REMEMBER IT question what to do:

Guided Reading - Questions about the text - How To

Construct A Pot - Session 4

Introduce next type of question - FIND IT

Introduce using key word(s) and skimming and scanning text to locate the answer.

Model using this technique with this question:

Where did the gentle loving voice come from?

Introduce final question type, PROVE IT question.

Mention that the answer isn't quite as straightforward, that you may need to think about or explain something. You might need thinking time.

Model a PROVE IT question with:

Why was Angelina's reply cheerful?

World Book Day - Listening To Live Read Then

Watching The Whole Story - Bill's New Frock

Single live lesson with the class sharing the opening 15 mins or so of "Bill's New Frock" by Anne Fine.

Once this is completed, ask the children at home to watch the TV programme based on it:

So from 9:45 onwards, children to draw and colour a new frock design that they would like to make for Bill. It will need to be labelled with noun phrases such as "a sparkly red stripe"
As an extension, the children can complete the close text letter template to sell the new frock to Bill.
